

Cross Culture

(1) Frontiers

- was founded in the United States in 1982 out of a desire to show God's love to the world's unreached Muslim population.
- At the time of Frontiers' founding there was just one Christ follower serving in the Muslim world for every one million Muslims.

CCCC supported missionary

- Dr. Mak and family serves at Frontiers, serving Muslims in UK.
- Please pray for God's guidance to Dr. Mak's future ministry

(2) Christian Witness to Israel (CWI) is a UK-based interdenominational evangelistic society committed to sharing the Good News of Jesus the Messiah with the Jewish people.

- CWI provides appropriate literature - in six languages - and runs an evangelistic website, www.shalom.org.uk.
- It hosts outreach events and provides training for Christians who wish to share the gospel with their Jewish friends, neighbors and colleagues.
- CWI's greatest resource is its staff, tirelessly working to bring the message of Messiah to a people of promise.

CCCC supported missionary

- Sarah Chan is one of CWI's full-time outreach workers we support to serve within the Israel and Jewish community in the United Kingdom.
- Please pray for Sarah for wisdom to bring the gospel to her small group of Jewish friends
- Pray for the chosen people around the world that they would open their hearts to Jesus Gospel

(3) Chinese International Missions Canada (CIM)

- Rev. Phillip Leung has been working in partnership with World Evangelization for Christ (WEC) Ghana.
- in establishing the school buildings as well as the curricula and ministries of the Computer and Business College and the Kindergarten in Tamale.
- CIM(Canada) has sent funding and professional personnel by way of Short-Term Missions teams to provide training and support to the teachers and staff of both institutions.
- Rev. Leung sends pastors to Ghana to teach theologian school so that local pastors can be trained to serve the Africans

CCCC support in Ghana

- We support their local church planting and pastoral training

